Dear Collector,

As Corgi's 50th Anniversary year reaches its climax, what better time to present you and other collectors with a bumper 40 page catalogue of the latest ranges available direct from Corgi Classics?

Naturally, there are some special 50th Anniversary editions, issued in only 2,006 pieces, and which replicate some of the milestone models in our fifty year history. There are also nearly forty brand new releases, some of which are products of new tooling for 2006 (these are clearly signalled in the pages of your catalogue). Original Omnibus, Road Transport, Trackside and Vanguard: there's something new from each of these ranges.

I would also draw your attention to two quite new concepts in die-cast modelling, which you will find illustrated and described in more detail inside your catalogue. Warbirds is a wonderful new series of aircraft and their pilots from World War Two which, when you collect the full set of 14, you can receive a sophisticated working model aircraft worth up to £149.99, absolutely FREE. And look out for the Forward March range of white metal hand-painted figures from major events in our military history.

I do hope there's something here you will want to add to your collection.

Corgi's association with Ford is the oldest one of all: the very first Corgi model, issued in July 1956, was a 1:46 scale Ford Consul! That association continues with the 1:43 scale replicas of Vanguard's Fords, which cumulatively track the history of Ford in Britain over the last half century. This selection includes three brand new releases, now offered direct to collectors for the first time.

Ford Sierra Sapphire Cosworth - Moondust Silver

To mark the 10th Anniversary of the Vanguard range, this 1:43 scale Limited Edition reproduces the 1991-2 'Cossie', the raucous race winner turned luxury saloon.
Ref: VA10002 £19.99
Scale 1:43 Approx. length 104mm

LIMITED EDITION

Ford Cortina MKIII - Sapphire Blue
Announced in October 1970, the MkIII Cortina went on to sell over 1.1 million, outselling both its predecessors. Our replica is accurate in every detail, from the 'coke bottle' shoulders to the precisely matched Sapphire Blue paintwork.
Ref: VA10300 £11.99
Scale 1:43 Approx. length 98mm

Ford Escort MkI Mexico - Sunset Red

Named to celebrate the Escort's victory in the 1970 London - Mexico World Cup Rally, the Escort Mexico continued in production to 1974. The Sunset Red paint and Mexico rally stripes makes this model hotter than any enchilada.
Ref: VA09508 £11.99 Scale 1:43 Approx. length 93mm

Ford Transit Series I MkI - GEC

This Limited Edition replicates a vehicle working for the General Electrical Company in the late 1960s. Launched in 1965, the Transit transformed the LDV market, as does this model with its jewelled headlights and detailed cab interior.

Ref: VA06106 £12.99
Scale 1:43 Approx. length 107mm

LIMITED EDITION

Ford Escort MkI RS 2000 - Diamond White

Ford Sierra Sapphire Cosworth - Turbo Systems

Turbo Systems specialise in modifying cars to give real performance at huge bhp's. And what better way to get that off to a flying start than with the iconic Cosworth? This 1:43 scale replica features detailed chromed 'wire' wheels, hubs and tyres, with working suspension and detailed interior including dashboard and steering wheel.

Ref: VA10005 £12.99 Scale 1:43 Approx. length 104mm

The Cosworth: the Turbo's Turbo

The original Sierra Cosworth was the foundation of a whole industry that continues to flourish today. In the form of two subsequent Ford developments, the Sapphire Cosworth and the Escort Cosworth, tuners have developed more and more ways of enhancing the power from the Cosworth 2-litre twin cam engine using turbochargers. Four wheel drive has also enabled the later cars to put that power down.

All featured models are issued as Limited Editions.

Ref: VA02618 £9.99
Scale 1:43 Approx. length 83mm

Sunbeam Alpine Series II - Embassy Black

Going, going ...

It's the end of an era: this is the very last Vauxhall Victor that will ever be produced in the Vanguard's range. Issued as a Limited Edition, and painted in the precisely matched Empress Blue of the original, this model is a milestone. It is unusual for us to announce in advance the end of a particular model, but we've modelled all the Victor colourways, so it's time to bring down the curtain.

Vauxhall Victor FA - Empress Blue

A British car styled in the extravagantly chromed 1950s manner of Vauxhall's Detroit General Motors parent, the Victor FA really did stand out from the crowd. This replica faithfully reproduces every last millimetre of chrome trim, as well as a detailed interior, and detailed wheels, hubs and tyres.
Ref: VA03811 £11.99 Scale 1:43 Approx. length 102mm

Modelled on original or restored models wherever possible, the 1:43 scale Vanguard range mirrors the history of classic British marques, here represented by Jaguar and BMC with a quartet of exact replicas from each marque. Two classics at opposite ends of the spectrum, launched respectively in 1972 and 1971, the Jaguar XJ12 and the Marina 1300, are issued in new, eye-catching and precisely matched colourways.

Jaguar XJ12 Series 1 - Silverstone Fire Tender No. 7

RHP 133H was the first of seven Jaguar-based Silverstone fire tenders, having started life as an XJ6 and then fitted with a V12 engine. The fire-fighting equipment was custom-designed by Chubb for the car, replacing the back seat with a 20-gallon tank.

Ref: VA08614 £12.99 Scale 1:43 Approx. length 112mm

Jaguar XJ6 4.2 - British Racing Green

The precisely matched paintwork, reflecting the famous racing colour, is just one of the features of this Limited Edition. Other features include the luxurious interior, working suspension, detailed wheels, hubs and tyres and jewelled headlights.

Collectables | TV & Film Favourites

One of the finest traditions in Corgi's 50 year history has been the close association with character vehicles from film and TV. Dating back to the DB5 that appeared in Goldfinger, first issued as a Corgi in October 1965, 007's ingeniously modified cars have proved enduringly popular with collectors. Here too are three other icons of silver and small screens, including two home-grown classics.

Wallace & Gromit, Anti-pesto Van & Bun-vac Set - The Curse of the Were-Rabbit
Launched simultaneously with the opening of The Curse of the Were-Rabbit, this set comprises detailed figures of Wallace and Gromit, their Anti-pesto die-cast van, and the telescopic action Bun-vac, another classic piece of technological wizardry from the Wallace workshop.

Collectables | Warbirds

Warbirds is a new concept in the grouping of precision die-cast aircraft models. The first collection features 14 aircraft from World War Two, with fighters reproduced to 1:72 scale and bombers to 1:144. What sets this series apart is that each fighter aircraft is modelled on a specific aircraft flown by an identified ace, from George Unwin and his RAF Spitfire MkIA to Helmut Wick of the Luftwaffe with his 109E.

Chance Vought Corsair F4U-1 - 2nd Lt Kenneth A. Walsh ➔
By 1944 the Corsair had become the predominant US Navy carrier-based fighter in the Pacific. Kenneth A. Walsh scored 20 'kills' over the Solomon Islands, and was decorated personally by President Roosevelt.
Ref: WB99606 £9.99
Scale 1:72 Wingspan 175mm

P-51 Mustang III - Sqd. Leader Eugeniusz Horbaczewski ➔
The first fighter which possessed the range to escort heavy bombers all the way to and from daylight raids over German cities, fighter ace Horbaczewski took command of Polish No. 315 Squadron in February 1944.
Ref: WB99602 £9.99
Scale 1:72 Wingspan 155mm

Supermarine Spitfire MkIA - Flt Sgt George Unwin ➔
Pilots loved it with a passion. The Spitfire in the Warbirds collection is fittingly that flown by Flight Sergeant George 'Grumpy' Unwin over Dunkirk in those bleak days of 1940, in which he made 3½ 'kills'.
Ref: WB99601 £9.99
Scale 1:72 Wingspan 156mm

Messerschmitt Bf 109E-4 - Kommodore Helmut Wick ➔
Until the Battle of Britain, during the summer of 1940, the Bf109E gave the Luftwaffe fighter supremacy over Europe. Helmut Wick once shot down 5 RAF fighters in one day, 5th October 1940.
Ref: WB99604 £9.99
Scale 1:72 Wingspan 136mm

Focke-Wulf Fw 190A-4 - Walter Nowotny ➔
Entering combat in the summer of 1941, the Fw 190 proved to be Germany's most lethal piston-powered WWII fighter. Leutnant Walter Nowotny was one of the greatest aces of the war, the first Luftwaffe fighter pilot to record 250 kills.
Ref: WB99605 £9.99 Scale 1:72 Wingspan 145mm

Hawker Hurricane MkI - Flt Lt 'Pete' Brothers ➔
Contrary to myth, the 'Hurri' was the main reason for RAF victory in the Battle of Britain. In the interests of speed, 'Pete' Brothers made a number of modifications to P2921, even having the external rivets filed down to reduce the drag on the aircraft.
Ref: WB99603 £9.99
1:72 Wingspan 167mm

A6M-3 Mitsubishi Zero - N.A.P. 1st Class Hiroyoshi Nishizawa ➔
Japan's most famous fighter aircraft, the Zero ran rings around other fighters in the early days of the war in the Pacific. Hiroyoshi Nishizawa was accorded the sobriquet of the Imperial Japanese Navy's 'Ace of Aces', with a reputed 'kill' total of over 100 enemy aircraft.

Forward March is a fascinating new departure in precision model collectables. It offers a range of 1:32 scale (approx. 54mm high standing) figures of individuals from milestone events in our military history over the past 200 years, from Trafalgar to Desert Storm, from Waterloo to the Somme. The series has been researched by acknowledged experts, before being meticulously sculpted and spin-cast in fine white metal then hand-painted in extraordinary detail.

In 1854 Florence Nightingale took a party of 38 nurses to Scutari in the Crimea, where she organised the hospital to take the heavy casualties of the battle of Inkerman in November. Still going strong, the Chiswick brewery of Fuller Smith & Turner can trace its roots way back in the history of London. And no more so, we suggest, than in this 1:50 scale reproduction of a handsome Foden road engine, complete with its complement of trailers and separate barrel load.

ANNIVERSARY

Collectables | Days Gone

Days Gone offers an exquisitely miniaturised record of vintage and veteran commercials (and some saloons, buses and trams) from a vanished era. Each little model reproduces a classic vehicle, from as early as the 1920s featuring names such as Dennis, Scammell, Sentinel and Morris Bull Nose. But what is exceptional is the painting, accurately reproducing period artwork in every detail. At under a fiver, how can you go wrong?

Egret or heron: what's in a name?

Rather touchingly named by a local schoolboy, Jack Gerrard, the Tamar link buses carried the names of birds frequenting the Tamar estuary, including the spoonbill, egret, cormorant, swan and heron. Launched as recently as February 2005, the eye-catching Trident double deckers provided an enhanced service from south-east Cornwall to Plymouth, while the smaller single-decker 'hoppers' filled in for off-peak travel.

Limited Edition quantities correct at time of going to print and may be subject to alteration. Certain models photographed in this catalogue are hand finished prototypes. The final quality of factory-produced models will be superior. All measurements are approximate. Corgi reserve the right to improve and amend specifications on all models.
